In Step Dance & Performing Arts Center is proud to be one of the top dance schools in Houston that provides tuition that's affordable and comparable for each family. While we know you have many dance schools to choose from, we are confident that our teaching ability shines value on our tuition rates.

Tuition rates listed above are for our 2023 Summer Classes. Summer tuition is a flat rate based and does not fluctuate with student absences.

Each family is required to pay a non-refundable individual student/family (two or more students) registration fee immediately upon enrollment for the summer season. There are no refunds for registration, missed classes, or unexpected weather conditions that require studio closure.
